Dear Parishioners,

“The Lord is Risen, we have seen Him.”

I have seen the Risen Lord in the faith of our parishioners, who have been able to withstand the present crisis. When apostles Peter and John went to the temple to pray, a lame beggar demanded some help. Peter told him “gold and silver, I have none. What I have, in the name of Jesus walk.” We are called to give, share what have been given us. I invite you, our parishioners, to share what God, in his goodness, has given you.

This Sunday, the last day of Easter Octave, we celebrate Divine Mercy Sunday. God’s mercy is abundant, his love is steadfast to all generations.

I have been talking to people and they were overwhelmed by our concern for them. And, in return here are some gratifying words of encouragement that I have received from them:

“a sincere thank you for your beautiful message. Yes, we are troubled but we must pray...”

“thank you so much for your telephone call...”

“Easter greetings! May the light of Resurrection restore you in everyway as you love your flock, keep serving...”

“we are thinking of all our priests and offering our prayers daily...”

“thank you for all the ways you serve your people especially during this time...”

Thank you for your prayers, good wishes and your help.

Let “Alleluia” be our song this Eastertide!

Please join us ONLINE and be united with us in our celebration of the Holy Mass to be streamed live every Sunday at 10 AM until regular mass schedules for the public resumes.

Sincerely in the Risen Jesus,

Fr. John Alex Pinto OCD
